

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 30, 2007

Contact:

Christina Gilgor, Kentucky Fairness Alliance Executive Director, (859) 420-6677

ALLIES UNITE TO DEFEND FAIR HEALTHCARE

Frankfort --- Joined by six organizations which promote fairness for all Kentuckians, the Kentucky Fairness Alliance presented state legislators with a resolution of solidarity and diligence, and a list of over 1200 individuals from all around Kentucky who support fair healthcare.

"This act of unity should show our legislators that Kentuckians from all walks of life believe we should treat all our neighbors fairly, regardless of their family situation" said KFA executive director Christina Gilgor.

- Fairness Campaign, Darnell Johnson
- Kentucky Equality Federation, Jordan Palmer
- Berea Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG), Grover Farr
- Louisville Parents, Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG), Carol Cadonic
- University of Louisville Faculty and Staff for Human Rights Coordinating Committee, Nancy Theriot
- Kentucky Gay-Straight Alliance Coalition, Jordan Palmer

The list of individuals represents Kentuckians from 80 counties and 150 cities who have expressed support for fair healthcare.

###

With over 10,000 members, the Kentucky Fairness Alliance seeks to advance equality for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people through leadership development, public education and by encouraging participation in the democratic process.