CORE VALUES

The Federation's diverse constituency shall be composed of individuals, honorary members, community representatives, corporations, students, and organizations interested in supporting and providing leadership on issues stated in our Mission Statement through communication, education and advocacy.

- » ACTION. We move quickly into action when called upon; we stand behind each other and represent our Association well throughout the community.
- » COMMITMENT. We keep our promises and commitments to ourselves, our loved ones, and the Federation.
- » DIVERSITY. We welcome people from all backgrounds and traditions; we encourage everyone to be themselves. We promise acceptance and respect for all people and recognize the special enthusiasm each individual possesses.
- » ENVIRONMENT. We consider the impact on the planet and surrounding ecosystems in all of our plans and decisions.
- » FAMILY. We view our Association as a family, respecting and nurturing each other.
- » HEALTH. We care about the well being of our loved ones, Association members, and ourselves.
- » OBJECTIVITY. We promise to keep emotions in check while making important decisions and to view issues without prejudice. We promise to be honest. We agree to make decisions objectively.
- » SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY. We realize our broader obligation to the community. We are committed to a peaceful environment.
